IRONBARK WINS GREENLAND PROSPECTOR AND DEVELOPER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Ironbark Zinc Limited (Ironbark) is pleased to announce that it has received the prestigious "Greenland Prospector and Developer of the Year 2013" award for its work on the Citronen base metal project.

The criteria for the award are that it is given to a company or a person who has been active in exploration and has shown initiative and innovation as well as inspiring other companies with consideration also made for sound environmental practices and social responsibility.

The prize was awarded at the PDAC convention in Toronto on "Greenland Day", – and was received by Jonathan Downes, CEO of Ironbark.

The Greenland Ministry of Industry and Mineral Resources hosted "Greenland Day", which was attended by more than 150 people from the minerals industry, interested in mineral exploration opportunities in Greenland.

Jørn Skov Nielsen, Deputy Minister, Ministry of Industry and Mineral Resources, presents the prize "Greenland Prospector & Developer of the Year 2013" to Jonathan Downes, CEO, Ironbark Zinc Ltd.

ABOUT IRONBARK

Ironbark is a well-funded company listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX: IBG) focused on the development of its Citronen major base metal mining operation in Greenland. Ironbark seeks to build shareholder value through the exploration and development of its projects and also seeks to actively expand its project base. The management and board of Ironbark have extensive technical and corporate experience in the minerals sector.
